

Night Depositories

Night Depositories

Optional two-piece handle

- Underwriters Laboratories Listed - resistant to “fishing” or “trapping” attacks for deposits.
- Special designed “release action mechanism” produces a positive sweep of contents to prevent jamming or binding.
- Balanced rotation design permits ease of manual operation.
- Flush mounted stainless steel fascia provides optimum appearance and endurance.
- Recessed lighting for added customer security.
- Weather protected envelope storage.
- Easily transformed from a combination drop receptacle to an exclusive key operated depository.
- Alarm system and video components available.
- Optional two-piece handle available for installations requiring extended reach.
- Any size receiving chest to accommodate customer requirements.